«We Finished 1620 Projects in many Governorates and we will not proceed on building New Projects until the Current Ones are done» Says the Local Development Minister

Dr. Ahmed Zaki Badr, the Local Development Minister announces that the state is now building 3006 projects in many Governorates stressing that the state's policy obliges it not to build new projects until the current ones are done. He adds that the cabinet presents a report of these projects to the people's assembly to have a look on it. The minister indicates that there are 1620 projects have been finished and operated to serve the Egyptians. He stresses that the cabinet meets every week to discuss how these projects are going and the problems that may hinder them in order to find a solution. This statement concurs with the national big projects forum which was organized by Benha University.
