

Australian Government

Australia Awards

DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

DESIRED APPLICANT PROFILE – POST HARVEST MANAGEMENT OF MAIZE, RICE AND LEGUMES SHORT COURSE

Target Group

- You are a national of an eligible country
- You are a mid to senior-level professional working in an agriculture policy, practice, research or reform role
- You are currently employed in an agriculture institution, ministry, non-government organisation or private company with significant responsibility in the development and extension of agricultural practices relating to grain harvesting and storage You have a clear vision for how you will use the knowledge gained through the short course to improve agricultural policy, practice, research or reform in your home country
- Female candidates are encouraged to apply.
- People living with a disability are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility

- You must no older than 50 years of age at the date of your application
- You have at least five years' post-graduation work experience in an agricultural policy, practice, research or reform role. Preference will be given to candidates with greater periods of experience
- You must hold a Bachelor's Degree or equivalent
- Satisfactory English proficiency is required as the course will be delivered in English
- You must be willing to make a formal commitment to return to your current employment following completion of the short course
- You must meet the general minimum eligibility criteria outlined below

Support Service Options

- Special needs assistance as deemed appropriate on a case-by-case basis

General Eligibility Criteria for Short Course Applicants

- You have citizenship of an eligible African country and you are currently living in the country of your nationality;
- You are not married to/or a defacto of, or engaged to be married to, a person who holds or is eligible to hold Australian or New Zealand citizenship or permanent resident status;
- You satisfy any specific criteria established by the applicant's country and/or government of citizenship; and
- You satisfy all requirements of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) for an AusAID student visa; and
- You satisfy any specific admission requirements of the Institution at which the short course is to be undertaken

Applicants must inform the Australian Government of any connection or relationship to staff employed by the Australian Government or with Managing Contractors at the time of application.

Course Details
Post-harvest management of maize, rice and legumes	Grain handling and transport systems Storage design options Aeration and drying Identification of storage pests Chemical and physical control of storage pests including fumigation Controlled atmosphere and integrated pest management Pest resistant varieties Control of aflatoxin and other mycotoxin contamination Attributes and maintenance of grain quality Value adding, supply chains and consumer specifications; Quality Assurance systems for grain

Note: Courses are anticipated to commence in May and September 2013 and run between four to twelve weeks. Applicants should indicate their preferred start date for the 2013 intake.

For further information visit: www.adsafrica.com.au

Online application open 01 September 2012 and close 30 November 2012

Australian Government

Australia Awards

DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

DESIRED APPLICANT PROFILE – ORGANISATIONAL and EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT (OED) SHORT COURSE

Target Group

- You are a national of an eligible country
- You are a mid to senior-level professional with OD being a key part of your role
- You are a OD practitioner, manager/line manager overseeing OD initiatives
- You have decision making authority to affect change in your organisational unit
- You are currently employed in a ministry, government agency, policy/research institution, non-government organisation or private company
- You have a clear vision for how you will use the knowledge gained through the short course to apply organizational development policy, practice or research in your home country to plan and implement continuous improvement and change
- Female candidates are encouraged to apply.
- People living with a disability are encouraged to apply.

Eligibility

- You must be no older than 50 years of age at the date of your application
- You have at least five years' post-graduation work experience in the field of OD or similar. Preference will be given to candidates with greater periods of experience
- You must hold a Bachelor's Degree or equivalent
- Satisfactory English proficiency is required as the course will be delivered in English
- You must be willing to make a formal commitment to return to your current employment following completion of the short course
- You must meet the general minimum eligibility criteria outlined below

Support Service Options

- Special needs assistance as deemed appropriate on a case-by-case basis

General Eligibility Criteria for Short Course Applicants

- You have citizenship of an eligible African country and you are currently living in the country of your nationality;
 - You are not be married to/or a defacto of, or engaged to be married to, a person who holds or is eligible to hold Australian or New Zealand citizenship or permanent resident status;
 - You satisfy any specific criteria established by the applicant's country and/or government of citizenship; and
 - You satisfy all requirements of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) for an AusAID student visa; and
- You satisfy any specific admission requirements of the Institution at which the short course is to be undertaken

Applicants must inform the Australian Government of any connection or relationship to staff employed by the Australian Government or with Managing Contractors at the time of application.

Course Details
Organizational Development	Executive People Management Team Building & Conflict Management Drivers of change Structures, processes, and the roots of current organizational development practice Defining a business model How to apply a core OD process to diagnose Sample strategic business model Systems models of OD Ethics and Values in OD Organizational Culture and Change Resistance to Change Intervention Strategies, Individual Interventions Team Development Intergroup Development Goal-Setting Essentials of Training and Development in Organization Negotiation Skills Effective Communication & Presentation Skills Decision Making and Problem Solving Mentoring and Coaching Leadership & Organization Development Leadership for Women

Note: Courses are anticipated to commence in May and September 2013 and run between four to twelve weeks. Applicants should indicate their preferred start date for the 2013 intake.

Australia Awards in Africa

Short Courses 2013

For further information visit: www.adsafrica.com.au

Online application open 01 September 2012 and close 30 November 2012

Australian Government

Australia Awards

DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

DESIRED APPLICANT PROFILE – LIVESTOCK SHORT COURSE

Target Group	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ You are a national of an eligible country ▪ You are a mid to senior-level professional working in an agriculture policy, practice, research or reform role ▪ You are currently employed in an agriculture institution, ministry, non-government organisation or private company with significant responsibility for the development and delivery of improved livestock production practices You have a clear vision for how you will use the knowledge gained through the short course to improve agricultural policy, practice, research or reform in your home country ▪ Female candidates are encouraged to apply. ▪ People living with a disability are encouraged to apply.
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ You must be no older than 50 years of age at the date of your application ▪ You have at least five years' post-graduation work experience in an agricultural policy, practice, research or reform role. Preference will be given to candidates with greater periods of experience ▪ You must hold a Bachelor's Degree or equivalent ▪ Satisfactory English proficiency is required as the course will be delivered in English ▪ You must be willing to make a formal commitment to return to your current employment following completion of the short course ▪ You must meet the general minimum eligibility criteria outlined below
Support Service Options	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Special needs assistance as deemed appropriate on a case-by-case basis

General Eligibility Criteria for Short Course Applicants

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You have citizenship of an eligible African country and you are currently living in the country of your nationality; • You are not be married to/or a defacto of, or engaged to be married to, a person who holds or is eligible to hold Australian or New Zealand citizenship or permanent resident status; • You satisfy any specific criteria established by the applicant's country and/or government of citizenship; and • You satisfy all requirements of the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) for an AusAID student visa; and • You satisfy any specific admission requirements of the Institution at which the short course is to be undertaken
--	---

Applicants must inform the Australian Government of any connection or relationship to staff employed by the Australian Government or with Managing Contractors at the time of application.

Course Details
Livestock	Extension and delivery of innovation including mainstreaming gender issues in agricultural development. Key elements and diversity of livestock production systems. Livestock markets and value chains. Return on investment from livestock improvement: case studies of genetic improvement from Africa. Milk production and processing. Meat production, animal handling, meat quality and safety. Poultry production systems.

Note: Courses are anticipated to commence in May and September 2013 and run between four to twelve weeks. Applicants should indicate their preferred start date for the 2013 intake.

For further information visit: www.adsafrica.com.au

Online application open 01 September 2012 and close 30 November 2012

