

Acknowledgement

First OF OLL the author feels indebted to Allah

The author wishes to acknowledgement his deep thanks and gratitude to Prof. Dr. Nabel M. Safy El-Din, God Bless his soul late professor at the National Center for Social and Criminological Research, for suggesting the topic of this work, his valuable scientific assistance, critical outlook, and guidance throughout the progress of his work,

It is also a pleasure to express my gratitude to Prof. Dr. Altaf Halim Basta, professor of cellulose & papers, National Research Center, not only for her valuable and constant help, but also for her continuous care with which I have been handled both throughout the course of this work and ensuring that thesis in the well presented form.

The author wishes also to express his deep thanks to Prof. Dr. Hesham R. Hamed, professor of applied organic chemistry, National Center for Social and Criminological Research, for his constructive cooperation, friendly encouragement and warm company throughout the progress of this work,

The author wishes to thank Dr. Ahmed Abd El-Salaam assistant professor of Organic Chemistry, Chemistry Department, Faculty of Science, Banha University, for his valuable help, enthusiastic affiliation and the facilities he presented which enabled the work to be carried out.

The author is also truly thankful to all the members and the authorities department of cellulose & papers, AT the National research Center, especially Prof. Dr. Houssni El-Saied for his vast facilities, which enabled this work to be carried out.

Additionally, the author extends his sincere thanks to all officers of scientific research group of Forensic for the vast facilities and their friendly encouragement throughout the progress of this work,

No words could ever express my deep thank to Allah for giving me the health and power to finish this work,