

improvement of shale deposits in south- west sinai egypt by extraction of some poisonous elements

Reda Adbd El-Shaheed Abd Wl-Gawad Ghazalar

Shale deposit are the most common and abundant sediment in the lithosphere national reserve of these deposits are estimated as about 11 billion ton the current investigation was conducted to achieve the following objectives.