

On the occasion of the
EU-EGYPT YEAR OF SCIENCE AND INNOVATION

The Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany in Cairo,
The British Embassy Cairo and
The Ministry of State for Environmental Affairs

Have the pleasure to invite you to a Special Event of the
CAIRO CLIMATE TALKS (CCT)

ON MARCH 12TH, 2012 AT 7 P.M

at El Sawy Culturewheel

To assess and review the topic of »CLIMATE CHANGE – HOW VULNERABLE IS EGYPT?«
in our 5th panel discussion

Following the CCT concept we have the honour to welcome three high-ranking key-note speakers from Germany, United Kingdom and Egypt, who will guide us through our discussion with their expertise and their valuable insight in the topic.

PROF. WOLFGANG CRAMER

Lead author of IPCC Reports,
Professor for Global Ecology,
Research Director at the Mediterranean Institute for
Ecology and Biodiversity

DR. KIRSTY LEWIS

Principal climate change consultant at the Met Office's Hadley
Centre, Co-author of the British
Study „Climate: Observations,
Projections and Impacts – Egypt“

PROF. MAGDY ABDELWAHAB

Professor and Ex-Head of the Department of Astronomy and Meteorology, Faculty of Science,
Cairo University

The journalist and author Julia Gerlach will moderate the discussion.

A buffet reception will close the evening.
